Friends of the Palmer Museum of Art Gala 2019
Shout it From the Rooftops! Sponsorship

The Palmer Museum of Art is a cultural treasure and a hub of activity for central Pennsylvania and beyond. Each year more than 36,000 people visit the museum to explore special exhibitions, engage with favorite works of art, or participate in a wide array of educational programs and events. Admission is always free.

The Friends of the Palmer Museum of Art, the museum’s membership organization, volunteer their time throughout the year to further the museum’s outreach mission. The Friends’ annual gala, with an average attendance of 240, generates income to support family and community days, after-hours programs for University students, and school visits for pre-school and K-12 students throughout the region. Last year, hundreds of local school children visited the innovative exhibition Plastic Entanglements: Ecology, Aesthetics, Materials, which is currently on a national tour. The lessons learned from that groundbreaking show are still reverberating throughout our community.

By contributing through one of the following sponsorship opportunities, you will help ensure that the Palmer remains an admission-free resource for art lovers of all ages and an important cultural destination for thousands of visitors.
